

BAMBOO RIDGE PRESS PRESENTS

Wing Tek Lum Readings

from a new collection of poetry

FRI. SEP 20

AALF VIRTUAL READING (1 TO 2 PM HST)

Part of the Asian American Literature Festival. Reading + talk story with three other BR authors & editor Cathy Song. Register at: bit.ly/3Azsyem

SAT. SEP 21

BOOK LAUNCH AT DA SHOP (2 TO 4 PM)

The official launch and celebration at our favorite Kaimukī bookstore! A reading and book signing to mark the release of this collection that culminates twelve years of research and writing.

WED. OCT 09

EALL TALK SERIES (3 TO 4:30 PM)

A reading and discussion with the East Asian Languages and Literatures Department at UH Mānoa. Co-sponsored by The Center for Chinese Studies. Moore Hall, room 258.

FRI. OCT 11

DOWNTOWN ART CENTER (6 TO 7:30 PM)

Join us for an evening reading at this gallery in the heart of historic Chinatown, where echoes of the past bring The Oldtimers to life.

SAT. OCT 19

HAWAI'I'S PLANTATION VILLAGE (11 AM TO 12 PM)

An immersive reading in a historic setting with a period backdrop that enhances the vivid imagery of Wing Tek Lum's poems.

THU. OCT 24

BROWN BAG BIOGRAPHY TALK (12 TO 1:15 PM)

A reading and discussion with the Center for Biographical Research at UH Mānoa, Kuykendall Hall, room 410.

THU. NOV 07

HAWAI'I PACIFIC UNIVERSITY (2 TO 3 PM)

Reading and talk story at Aloha Tower! HPU Waterfront Plaza, Building 1, room 304-A.

THU. NOV 14

UH WEST O'AHU (1 TO 2 PM)

Reading and discussion in the James & Abigail Campbell Library, second floor.

Lum's poetry recreates voices of the past with insight and empathy.

The Oldtimers imagines life in Chinatown Honolulu circa 1900s inviting readers to experience one of the city's oldest districts through vignettes of memory and change.

All events are free and everyone is welcome!

Follow us on social media

@bambooridge

For more event info email us at read@bambooridge.org or visit our events page at:

BambooRidge.org

